

Polarity is a complementary therapy that combines Far Eastern healing arts and Western medicine. Polarity harmonizes the energy flow in the body and brings the life current through blocked body areas and painful tissues into flow. The energy flows flow between two poles - hence the name "Polarity".

Polarity has been practiced in Switzerland for over 35 years. The therapy is suitable for people of all ages; the treatment is usually done over the clothes.

www.accompagno.org